

Fulbright

SCHOLAR PROGRAM

Host a Fulbright Visiting Scholar

The Fulbright Program, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, is the U.S. government's flagship international exchange program and is supported by the people of the United States and partner countries around the world. For more information, visit eca.state.gov/fulbright.

The Fulbright Scholar Program is administered by the Council for International Exchange of Scholars, a division of the Institute of International Education. For more information, contact us at scholars@iie.org or 202-686-4000, or visit www.iie.org/cies.

Apply today to host a Fulbright Visiting Scholar through the Outreach Lecturing Fund (OLF) or the Scholar-in-Residence Program.

Short-term Two to Six Day Guest Lectureships through the OLF

- 1 Explore the list of 800+ Fulbright Visiting Scholars from all over the world at cies.org/fulbright-scholar
- 2 Invite them to speak with faculty and students about their country, culture, or research.
- 3 Apply for funding at cies.org/olf.

Applications are accepted throughout the year!

For more information and to apply, contact us at OLF@iie.org or visit cies.org/OLF

Host a Scholar for a Semester or Academic Year through the S-I-R

- 1 Develop a proposal for a scholar to teach courses, curriculum development and community engagement.
- 2 Work with Fulbright Program staff to submit an application that will suit the needs of your institution.
- 3 Review candidates and select a scholar to host for the 2017-18 Academic Year.

Application Deadline: Monday, October 17, 2016!
