The Fulbright Program

- Established 1946 to expand and strengthen the relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of the rest of the world
- Sponsored by U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and administered by the Institute of International Education's Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES)

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

OLF Program Objectives

- Help U.S. colleges and universities to internationalize by inviting Fulbright Visiting Scholars to their campuses
- The Outreach Lecturing Fund hopes to engage with campuses who are traditionally underrepresented within the Fulbright Program
- Enables Fulbright Visiting Scholars who are currently in the United States to accept guest lecturing invitations at other U.S. colleges and universities

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Benefits for OLF Host Institutions

- Provides international engagement opportunities for U.S. students, faculty and staff
- Fosters future academic partnerships with U.S. higher education institutions, the OLF scholar, and her/his home institution
- Offers increased awareness and participation of the impact of the Fulbright Program
- Access to leading scholars from around the world

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Benefits for Fulbright Visiting Scholars

- Unique opportunity for visiting scholars to experience different areas of the United States
- Opportunity for visiting scholars to share their Fulbright projects and culture with new audiences
- Expansions of scholar's network with faculty and administrators of another U.S. institution and various organizations in the area where they present

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Outreach Lecturing Fund Application Overview

The U.S. Department of State provides funding, known as the Outreach Lecturing Fund (OLF), through the Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES), to enable Fulbright Visiting Scholars who are in the United States, for a grant longer than three months, to accept guest lecturing invitations at colleges and universities throughout the U.S.

Host institutions must complete these two steps to obtain Travel Award approval for the Fulbright Visiting Scholar:

1. Complete the OLF Application Form
2. E-mail the Application Form together with a Letter of Invitation to OLF@ie.org

You should receive a letter of funding approval (or disapproval) for your application from CIES within one business week.

How to Apply

- Produce a letter of invitation to lecture at a U.S. college or university
- Complete and submit the OLF application form and Invitation Flyer www.cies.org/olf
- Ensure that the lecture does not take place within the last month of the scholar's grant period and is between 2-6 days in length
- Email completed application and letter of invitation to olf@iie.org at least 30 days in advance of your proposed OLF visit
- Once the scholar receives the approval email from IIE, they can then purchase their ticket or arrange other transportation for the trip
- Please allow at least 1 week for us to respond to your application. Additionally, ensure that applications are only submitted once, multiple applications will result in a slower processing time

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

What Should an Invitation Letter Say

- Purpose(s) of the visit at the OLF host institution
- Type of activities the scholar will engage in and dates of the visit
- Commitment from the host institution to provide housing, meals, and local transportation
- Honorarium amount, if offered (not required)
- Suggested collaboration with another neighboring institution, especially other priority institutions such as:
 - Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs)
 - Community Colleges (CC)
 - Small Liberal Arts Institutions (LAC)
 - Geographically underrepresented Institutions

After the Visit is Over...

- OLF Scholars and Hosts are required to submit the following documents to olf@iie.org:
- OLF Hosts:
 - OLF Online Evaluation Form (one for every campus visited)
 - Articles, stories, pictures and videos for publication on the Fulbright Scholar Blog
- OLF Scholars:
 - Register for IiePay through their Program Advisor
 - SSN (to the Scholar Portal)
 - Scholar stories and pictures
