Diversity and Inclusion

Fulbright strives to ensure that it reflects the diversity of U.S. society and societies abroad. We encourage the involvement of people from traditionally underrepresented audiences in all our grants, programs and other initiatives.

Opportunities are open to people regardless of their race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, geographic location, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Preference is given to veterans when other factors are equivalent.

Website and Catalog of Awards

The screenshot shows the Fulbright Scholar Program website. At the top left is the Fulbright logo. To its right is the text "FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR PROGRAM" and "A program of the United States Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs". Further right are social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Google+, along with the text "Stay connected:". Below this is a search bar with a "Go" button. A navigation menu includes "Home", "About Us", "Programs", "News & Media", "On Campus", and "Contact Us". The main content area features a large image of a group of women in colorful saris. Overlaid on this image is a dark blue box with the text "Fulbright Public Policy Fellowship" and a description: "The Fulbright Public Policy Fellowship provides opportunities for U.S. early and mid-career professionals and practitioners to serve in professional placements in a foreign government ministry or institution in partner governments around the world." Below the description is a "Read More >>" link and a small "1 2 3" indicator. At the bottom of the page are four white buttons with right-pointing arrows: "Apply for IEA Seminars", "Browse the Awards Catalog", "View the Fulbright Scholar Directory", and "Connect with Fulbright".
