- Scholars apply for this grant once in country on their Fulbright grant.
Affiliations and Invitations

Host Institution:
- If a host is identified, it will be found under Location in the Catalog
- When a host is not identified, there are several resources to help find an affiliation:
  - International office on your campus
  - U.S. and Visiting Fulbright Scholar Directory
  - Review award description for suggested hosts or resources

Letter of Invitation:
- Non-binding expression of interest from proposed host abroad
- Should come from person with whom you will be collaborating
- Should be on host institution letterhead
Affiliations and Invitations - Europe and Eurasia

- Some countries ask that language requirements be addressed in the letter of invitation:
  - e.g.: France, Spain, etc.

- Some countries/systems of higher education require a letter of invitation:
  - e.g.: Austria, Germany, etc.

- Some countries will make placements for some awards, and do not require letters of invitation:
  - e.g.: Spain, Poland, etc.
Submitting a Competitive Application

- Address the Fulbright goal of promoting mutual understanding
- Why you are interested in a Fulbright and why in your proposed host country
- Professional expertise and skills you can offer; benefits to the host institution and host country; exchange of knowledge and experience
- Cultural diplomacy; demonstrated flexibility, adaptability
- Outcomes, impact, and multiplier effect
  - for your professional development, home campus, students, field at large; for your host institution
  - future collaborations; linkages: personal, professional, institutional; plans for sustaining relationships
  - internationalizing campus and curriculum
