Mission

• In partnership with 160 countries worldwide, Fulbright offers passionate and accomplished faculty, administrator, artists, journalists, lawyers, and other professionals from all backgrounds an unparalleled opportunity to study, teach, or conduct research.

• Our mission is to foster mutual understanding between nations, advance knowledge across communities, and improve lives around the world.

A Brief History

• Established in 1946 by Congress, Fulbright is the United States government’s flagship international educational and cultural exchange program.

• Fulbright is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Institute of International Education.
Diversity and Inclusion

Fulbright strives to ensure that it reflects the diversity of U.S. society and societies abroad. We encourage the involvement of people from traditionally underrepresented audiences in all our grants, programs and other initiatives.

Opportunities are open to people regardless of their race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, geographic location, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Project Statement

This is your opportunity to explain your proposed project and specific strengths as a candidate to reviewers and potential hosts. Start with the big questions:

- What are you proposing to do?
- Why this country and this ministry?
- How will you engage with the host country, including in the office and in the community?
- Why is it important?
- Why you?
- What impact do you hope to have? It must be clear and compelling to audiences both inside and outside your field.
Project Statement

Research Project

- What do you propose to do?
- State clearly methodology and the nature of your research (quantitative or qualitative).
- What significance does it hold for your discipline, your development, the host country’s benefit, and how will the results be disseminated?
- How feasible is your project in terms of resources and amount of time allocated?
- Why does it need to be done in this country? What research facilities and resources are found in the host country?
- How could local political or cultural issues impact your work?
